Article I. Mission/Purpose

Handbags That Help (HTH) is a women's giving circle committed to improving lives throughout the greater Hancock County community by collectively funding significant grants to charitable projects and programs and increasing philanthropy in our community.

The purpose of HTH is to:

Cultivate women as informed philanthropic leaders,

Create a new and substantial pool of money from women,

Identify appropriate and timely opportunities

Allocate funds based on majority preference,

Accomplish change,

Celebrate impact, and

Attain recognition as a "difference maker", a valued and significant resource.

Section 1.01 Goals

The goals of HTH are to:

- (a) Increase women's philanthropic giving in our community,
- (b) Involve members in annual giving that is lasting, and
- (c) Serve as a catalyst for enduring change.

Article II. Name

Handbags That Help is the official name of the group.

Article III. Sponsor

HTH has established a field of interest fund at The Findlay-Hancock County Community Foundation (TCF). TCF Board of Directors has authorized the voting members of HTH to approve distributions from the fund. HTH will communicate with TCF and solicit its input and advice as needed in connection with the efforts of the Grants Sub-Circle, pursuant to Article VIII.

Article IV. Membership

Membership in HTH is open to all women who wish to further the mission and goals of HTH through financial support. Voting Members shall be defined as those who annually complete a registration form and submit the annual contribution to be filed with HTH.
