Dedication

We, the seniors of Corry Area High School take pride in dedicating our yearbook, THE CORRIAN of 1961, to Miss Helen S. Rowe in grateful appreciation for her unfailing help as advisor of the Corrian Club.

We feel that she has been a sincere friend and a devoted teacher. It is our ardent hope that she may have many more happy years at Corry Area High School.

Senior Class History

The Senior Class of 1961 has many pleasant memories of our years at Corry Area High School. Our class is proud to have the honor of being the largest ever to graduate from Corry Area High School to this date.

As sophomores, the class of 1961 proudly presented a play entitled "Grama's Best Years," which was under the superb direction of Mr. Fred Schwab. The play was an outstanding success and the proceeds went to the organ fund.

To begin our junior year, the officers, headed by Robert Casler, selected our class rings which we proudly wore as a symbol of allegiance to our school.

The class again presented a sparkling play, "Stag Line," which was directed very capably by Mr. Phillip Legal. The proceeds from the play, which was the most important venture of our year's events, financed the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet, following the theme of "South Pacific." Don Wharton was selected for the high honor of world travel and became the first exchange student from Corry Area High School. Our picnic at Conneaut Lake Park was exciting and most enjoyable.

In our senior year we thoroughly enjoyed the prom given by the Juniors. We now look forward to the future where we hope to find our place somewhere in the world of today.

In Memoriam

And yet I could not conceive
Nor bring myself to believe
Those awesome words of grief they said
In sudden sorrow, "He is dead."
Could it be that 'ere again
We shall not the gladness gain
In warmth of thy nearness,
Nor unfailing dearneess
Of thy unselfish heart
Now from us apart.
No more to hear thy laughter
Resounding quickly after
Thy care-free words of mirth
Now bound in silent girth
Of Death's eternal tranquil
Scene of sleep, forever still.

Oh, if I need not brook
Myself on thee to look,
Within my brain to wrought
That which my heart cannot
As I behold the regality
Within solemn Death's finality,
My heart cries if but for only one
Small consolation where there is none.

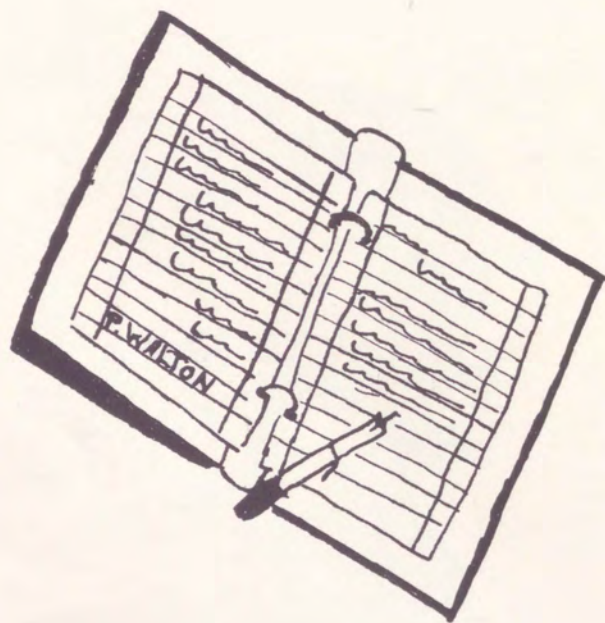

In bitter truth, thou art gone,
Slowly not thy life grown wan,
But from youth's delight
Death's untimely sprite
Has plucked thy joyful soul,
And while mournful bells toll
O'er flowing grief from shore to sea,
In quiet knells, I weep for thee.

Sophomore Class Play

FIRST ROW: S. Holton, N. Krupa, V. Motuz, M. Bangs, L. Tressler, K. Tate, D. Sawyer, B. Bennett, B. Woodworth.
SECOND ROW: P. Dahl, G. Hopkins, J. Armitage, D. Johnson, B. McCray, A. Wester, J. Donaldson, D. Wharton, L. Huntley.

The class of '61 presented their Sophomore play, "Grandma's Best Years." There was a large attendance at the matinee, January 14, and at both evening performances, January 15, and 16, 1959.

The story concerned the Abbott family. Mrs. Abbott wanted the family to become "high society." The children didn't agree with her so when Grandma came from the country for a weekend visit, she and the children managed to change Mrs. Abbott's mind.

The proceeds of the play, which was directed by Mr. Fred Schwab, and student director Gloria Hopkins, netted $400 for the organ fund.

Cast: Mrs. Abbott, Linda Tressler; Sadie, Bonnie Bennett; Joyce Abbot, Diane Sawyer; Marion Abbott, Wanda King; Dottie Morgan, Shirley Holton; Willie Abbott, Albin Wester; Shorty, James Donaldson; Jim Meyerson, Robert McCray; Gram, Catherine Tate; Patch, Donald Wharton; Mabel, Majorie Bangs; Bubbles, Betty Woodworth; Mrs. Carlson, Janet Armitage; Miss Quelch, Nancy Krupa; Edwin Carlson, Richard Johnson; Cousin Oscar, Larry Huntly.

On March 3 and 4, 1960, the Class of '61 presented their annual Junior Class play, "Stag Line."

The story began with Sylvia's wedding, which her sister, Maudie, thought she should supervise. Maudie was given charge of the arrangements and eventually bungled them. She had everyone suspecting everyone else. For example, Jerry thought Sylvia loved Mac, and Smitty thought the wedding dress was to be delivered to the church instead of to the house. Mrs. Tarrington Smith, Jerry's best client, wasn't invited until just before the wedding, and Jerry didn't show up until the last minute.

The play was under the supervision of Mr. Philip Legal and Miss Nancy Krupa, student director. Music was played by the Corriliers under the direction of Mr. Ronald Rairie. The Class raised enough money to pay for the Junior-Senior banquet and prom.

Junior Class Play

FIRST ROW: M. O'Hare, T. Stroup, D. Wharton, S. Holton, G. Hopkins, A. Wester, R. Johnson, S. Moore. SECOND ROW: J. Trisket, Mr. Legal, S. Daye, R. Halfast, K. Tate, B. Bennett, M. Anderson, N. Krupa, M. Diemer. THIRD ROW: G. Anthony, N. Sorenson, R. Kerstetter.

"SOUTH PACIFIC"

FIRST ROW: R. Thomas, R. Larronda, C. Hajec, C. Wesolaski, Queen, B. Wiecht, L. Grinder, R. Pain, A. Bull, L. Barr. SECOND ROW: J. Baressi, A. Catalfu, D. Stewart, J. Howard, J. Roach.

The Juniors chose "South Pacific" as the theme of the annual Junior-Senior Prom on April 18, 1960. The decorations consisted of beautiful south sea murals and palm trees.

Jimmy Shae and his orchestra provided a lovely evening of music for all of the many dancing couples.

The intermission was highlighted by the crowning of the queen, Miss Barbara Weicht, escorted by Douglas Stewart. The queen's court was made up of the following girls and their escorts: Rosa Larrondo and Robert Thomas, Christine Hajac and Joseph Baressi, Louise Grinder and James Howard, Roberta Pain and John Roach, Ardeth Bull and Larry Barr, Connie Wesoloski and Albert Catalfu.

Following the dance at the gymnasium, a Post-Prom Party was held at the Moose home by the Parent-Teachers Association.

ALDO MARIO GREMESE

Aldo Gremese, Corry Area High School's third foreign exchange student, is a native of Udine in Northeastern Italy. He arrived in Erie, August 22, 1960, by way of bus.

Aldo came to the United States by boat with 800 other exchange students. They arrived in New York on August 21, took a bus to Buffalo, New York, and another one to Erie, Pennsylvania.

Aldo, a friend to all, has as his American parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCray, of R.D.1, Corry. Bob McCray, a senior at Corry High, and Mark McCray and David McCray are his American brothers. The son of Lino and Amneris Gremese, Aldo has a younger sister Franca.

His interest in sports centers mainly on track (foot-racing as he calls it). After being exposed to our games of football and wrestling, he has expressed a desire to learn and participate.

Aldo's hobby is music and he enjoys leisurely hours tape recording and playing the Hi-Fi records. Upon his return to Italy, Aldo must finish one more term of school.

He has made many friends during his year in Corry among students and faculty.

We sincerely hope he enjoyed his stay among us as much as we have enjoyed having him. He is indeed a fine Italian boy.

Our American-Abroad Student

DONALD PATRICK WHARTON

Last summer, representing our school in the American Field Service Summer Program, I spent the most rewarding twelve weeks of my life.

I left Corry on June 7, the last day of school, for Montreal, Canada, from which 825 other AFSers sailed on June 9 aboard the Europe-Canada liner, "M. S. Seven Seas." On June 18, we docked in the small Dutch Port of Vlissingen, Holland. From there, twenty-eight of us who were to spend our summer in France traveled by train to Paris, where we spent a week of sightseeing and adjusting to French life. After this gay and exciting week in Paris, we then left for our respective families. I myself went to Pau, which is in Southern France, about forty miles from the Spanish border high in the Pyrenees Mountains, to live with the family of Louis Martinez.

My family consisted of Mama and Papa, my brother, Andre, my three sisters, Maite, Renee, and Michele, and my oldest sister's two children, Jean Pierre and Francoise.

Although I had had no French in school, I managed to communicate pretty well as Andre, Renee, and Michele spoke English, and later on I was able to speak some French. Besides, the love and understanding I received from my family was far deeper than any established by a common language.

During my stay in France, I came to love the French People and their way of life. I believe that the greatest reward I received from the trip was my immediate acceptance as a son and a brother to my family.

In addition to this, I was able to see much of the cultural and scenic beauty of France, including Paris, the Holy Shrine at Lourdes, the Pyrenees Mountains, the Riviera, and the other wonderful places that are so much a part of France.

When it came time to leave, which it did far too soon, I felt very sad not only at the thought of leaving my wonderful family to whom I had grown so attached, but I also felt the very special sadness of parting that comes only when leaving "La Belle, France."

The last leg of my trip took place aboard the Holland-America liner, the "Waterman," where we were all reunited to talk over all our adventures until landing in New York on August 24.

Thus, I would like to once again thank the AFS for affording me this wonderful opportunity, and express to you the pride that I have felt in representing a school as fine as Corry Area High.

Don Wharton

Finalists in A. F. S. Americans Abroad Program

When a school has an American Field Service Foreign Student Program, it is eligible to participate in the American Field Service Americans Abroad Program and perhaps send a member of the present junior class to a foreign country next summer.

A lucky member of the class of 1962 may have the opportunity to visit a foreign country under this program.

From the nine juniors who applied for consideration, six were chosen by the Selection Committee, and their applications were sent to the New York Office of the AFS for the final selection. They were: Michael Johnson, Loretta Lindstrom, Roger Myers, John Ortner, Arthur Tarbell, and Kathe Tunnell. The Selection Committee included: Miss Ruth Bennett, Miss Kathleen Gage, Mr. Roger Hoover, Mrs. Lydia Kapteina, Miss Jeanne Nichols, Mrs. Minna Stahl, Miss Nelle Titus, Mr. J. Donald Watson, and Mr. Harold G. Wolfe.

Applicants for this program must have completed two years of a foreign language, be sixteen years old by June 30, 1961, in excellent health, and a United States citizen. General qualifications are: (1) Ability to adapt quickly and easily to different people and situations; (2) Human understanding; (3) Outgoing personality, curiosity, and interest; (4) Scholastic ability; (5) Recognition of responsibilities and purposes involved in the AFS program, and clear understanding of its aims; (6) A real desire to participate wholeheartedly in this program.

These six students are all capable and could do a fine job representing our school, community, and country. However, only one may be chosen, and that decision will be made by the officials in the New York Office of the American Field Service.

Junior Class History

As we, the Class of 1962, completed our junior year, we were proud of the many things we contributed to help make our school a success.

Our class rings, which we received in December, were selected by our class officers.

We produced one of the best Junior Plays ever staged in Corry High School under the able direction of Mr. Philip Legal. The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, financed by the proceeds of the Class Play, were original and clever and enjoyed by everyone.

We were active in the field of sports for we contributed such talent as Jerry McIntyre, Mickey McMahon, Bob Roden, Jim Roberts, Danny McEldowney, Jim Olson, just to mention a few.

After a busy and rewarding year, we look forward with anticipation to our last year in Corry Area High School.

Sophomore Class History

Class election was held September 20, an important day for us. We learned from Mr. Miller, our class advisor, of the responsibilities of being a Sophomore.

During the year, the Sophomores held a dance, a hayride, and several candy sales.

The class celebrated the end of the year with a class picnic at Conneaut Lake.

Adviser	Mr. Roger Hoover

The Key Club of the Corry Area High School, under the guidance of Mr. Hoover, had another successful year.

Following the Club tradition, it was very active in both community and school affairs. During the summer, the Club delivered phone books and during the football season sold programs at all home games. The Group held a dance, attended the annual Kiwanis-Key banquet, rang bells for the Salvation Army, and held a candy sale. A main project for the year was the purchase of Key Club jackets for members of the club.

Library Assistants

There were thirty library assistants from the ninth through the twelfth grades who worked under the supervision of Miss Nichols. These people kept the library running smoothly for the students of Corry High School.

During the year, the assistants had candy sales to pay for their picture in the Corrian. A panel discussion and many interesting programs were held during the year.

Working in the library was both educational and helpful in learning where to locate books, how to look up magazines, as well as learning about the organization and how it works.

Eighth grade reporters were in charge of John Kennedy and Chris Sample. They included Trudy Sallee, Linda Lobdell, Geoffrey Russell, Mary Mowery, Mary Dundon, Kathy Dennis, Wanda Henry, Lenore Lilley, Carolyn Migliaccio, Lance Pledger, Penny Sproveri, and Connie Waite.

Ninth grade reporters were in charge of Connie Root and included Sally O'Hare, Bonnie Halfast, Janet Shamburg, Susan Castor, Jenine Loveland, and Barbara Keppel.

There were three firsts this year for the BEAVER:

1. Pictures appeared for the first time in the BEAVER.
2. Junior High news appeared in the BEAVER.
3. Junior High had a staff on the BEAVER.

The staff prepared a copy of the BEAVER every month for eight issues. This achievement kept everyone busy in and out of club periods. Everyone participating in this club enjoyed it because of the fact that they became more familiar with newspaper work and journalism.

Corrian

All members of the Corrian Staff worked to put out the "best yet" Yearbook. Students were selected through an indication of writing ability, cooperation, and a sense of responsibility.

One task followed another in the schedule of work: Checking on Senior pictures, getting advertisements, working on Ping-pong pictures and sales, tracking down club writeups, and selling yearbooks.

The Staff appreciated the typing done by the following girls: Deanna Dundon, Gloria Hopkins, Elaine Wester, Veronica Motuz, Janet Oldenski, Connie Nichols, Connie Nelson, Agnes Sutton, Kay Hamilton, Linda Tressler, and Virginia McCray.

The Student Council is a group of students elected by each homeroom to act as representatives of the entire student body. This year the Student Council was made up of the presidents of all homerooms with the vice-presidents as alternates.

During the year this organization discussed things in the school which needed improvement and voted on ways to improve them. Some of their projects were as follows: organize a hall monitor system, sell orange and black bookcovers and also comical bookcovers, revise the constitution, prepare a student handbook, advocate cleanliness and spirit within the school, and hold numerous candy sales to raise money for the A. F. S. program.

The group kept the suggestion boxes for students to submit their ideas, and it also held a Thanksgiving program as well as other assemblies throughout the year. The WOTR radio broadcast of school news was also continued this year.

The Corry Area Senior High School Chapter of the National Association of Future Teachers of America received its charter on November 17, 1958.

Two club members were privileged to attend a tea of the Erie County F. T. A. clubs which was held at Lawrence Park.

During the year, the members held a white elephant sale, a cupcake sale, and had the opportunity of observing teaching methods and procedures in the various schools of the Corry district.

The second annual Halloween Party in the High School Cafeteria was the first official function of the Club.

Just before Thanksgiving, an auction was held to dispose of items donated by Mr. Joseph Cohen, local business man. A nice amount was placed in the Club treasury as a result of this sale.

Mr. Roseberry of the Pennsylvania Employment Service headed the local speaking group.

The boys went on their Annual Field trip to the plant of the American Sterilizer Company in Erie on the third of February.

The group was privileged to visit the Research & Development Laboratory as well as the Manufacturing facilities of this world-famous organization.

Movies of interest concluded the year's agenda.

The boys coming into the F.F.A. received the Greenhand Degree and at the same time were initiated. The Sophomores were initiated later into the Chapter Farmer Degree, which is the next highest award. Much planning and work went into the educational display and the F.F.A. project exhibits at the Wattsburg Fair.

Throughout the year, the F.F.A. members participated in four television shows over W.I.C.U., Erie. A Donkey Basketball Game was held for the purpose of raising money, and the members also sold light bulbs for the same purpose.

In January, 1961, there were fourteen members of the F.F.A. who went to the Farm Show at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Vernon Hatch received the State Farmer Award while at the Farm Show. He is the third boy from Corry to receive this award.

All the boys were required to have at least one project outside of school, the main types of which were dairy projects and Beef Steers. These steers were sold at the annual Northwestern Pennsylvania Beef Show at Crawford County Fair Grounds.

At the end of the year, a Parents' and Sons' Banquet was held in the Corry Area High School cafeteria at which time many awards for outstanding achievement were given.

The members of the Projection Club learned how to operate and service the various machines used in the field of visual and audio education.

The duty of the members was to be available for the showing of films to various classes.

Club periods were spent in working on the machines and in enjoying the films at their disposal.

At the beginning of the year, 1960-1961, the Senior Tri-Hi-Y held a candy sale to raise money for a contribution to the World Service Project.

The Club rang bells at Christmas and held a gift dance to collect toys in order to make a donation to the Salvation Army.

During one of the meetings, the superintendent and the night supervisor of the Corry Memorial Hospital conducted the girls on a complete tour.

Some of the Club's activities included a splash party at the Y. M. C. A., a New Year's Eve dance, as well as other dances. The girls also collected clothes for the refugees from Cuba.

Throughout the year, the Senior Tri-Hi-Y entertained a number of guest speakers; such as Don Wharton, the AFS student of 1960, and Aldo Gremese, the Senior's Exchange Student from Italy.

The many activities proved to make a very successful year for the Senior Tri-Hi-Y.

At Thanksgiving time the girls contributed baskets for the distribution by the Salvation Army. Following Halloween, the members washed the windows of the Business Merchants of Corry as a money-making project.

During the Christmas Season, the girls participated in the ringing of bells for the Salvation Army. Along with the Senior and Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y Clubs, the Junior Tri-Hi-Y Club sponsored a Holly Hop Dance for the benefit of the Salvation Army, and, together with the other Tri-Hi-Y Clubs, they sponsored a New Year's Eve Dance.

Later in the school term, the girls went on a tour of Corry Memorial Hospital followed by a discussion with Mrs. Reed.

Sleigh parties and other social activities were also enjoyed. Several of the girls attended District Tri-Hi-Y meetings.

A very successful year was completed by the Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y.

The Holly Hop was an even bigger success than last year.

Our members brought much happiness to the elder residents of a local nursing home in our yearly project.

Ringling bells for the Salvation Army, taking charge of refreshments for the New Year's Eve Party at the YMCA, and selling candy completed one of the "best years yet."

Industrial Arts

Learning a little of the solution of everyday problems in our technical society, not only for economic reasons, but for personal satisfaction, was the primary interest of the Industrial Arts Club. The approach which the members enjoyed was the selection of something which interested them and which could be solved within their realm either as an individual or as a group. Making a sketch first helped in understanding the problem more fully. The casual observer usually sees the construction phase of a project while the final phase of the problem is the use or test of the product.

The feeling of achievement from this type of association and experience added to the student's self-confidence which is a necessity in facing problems of today and tomorrow.

The advisor of the group was Mr. John Liebegott.

Mr. Felix Matthews--Gone, but not forgotten!

School Treasurer

Deanna Dundon, Barbara Wickwire

Deanna Dundon, the School Treasurer, was responsible for the handling of large sums of money from the various school organizations.

Each day money received was deposited in the local bank to enable the organization to request checks from the general fund. Deanna handled the checks drawn from this fund and prepared a statement for each club or organization every month.

The student Business Manager of Athletics, Barbara Wickwire, worked in close cooperation with the School Treasurer. She kept records of money received and withdrawn from the athletic account and recorded the expenses of each game.

Mary Jane O'Hare

D. A. R. Award

The D.A.R. Good Citizens Award is given every year to the senior girl chosen by her class and approved by faculty vote who best represents the qualities of a good citizen, dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Mary Jane O'Hare was the winner of this year's award. She received a Certificate of award and a Good Citizens' Pin, and represented our school in the state competitive test on our national government with emphasis on the Federal Constitution and its amendments. The state and national awards are based on the results of this test.

Congratulations to Mary Jane on receiving this D.A.R. Award.

High School Band

During the 1960 football season, the Corry Area High School Band presented many fine and varied shows at the half time. Beginning in 1961, the band began practicing for their annual spring concert, which was presented and well accepted. As a reward for their work during the year, the band was treated to a day of fun and frolic at Conneaut Lake Amusement Park.

This year we were very proud to have two representatives from Corry marching with the Wattsburg High School Band in the Inaugural Parade at Washington, D.C. These two young men were Michael Anderson and Dennis Mountain, who played baritones on January 20, 1961.

Collegiates

This newly organized group of junior and senior high students derived its name from the noun, "college," meaning "a group of persons having certain common interests." Thus the Collegiates began to sing for community affairs in Corry and nearby vicinities.

By limiting membership to a minimum, this blend and sound added to the pleasure of the listener. Their repertoire contained secular and sacred songs leaning toward the light side of music.

Miss Judith Dwyer was advisor and organizer of the group.

Season's Summary: The Corry Beavers lost a 13-7 heartbreaker to the Warren Dragons with less than one minute to play on a 38-yard pass and run play. Joe Baressi's 51-yard scamper for a touchdown was the outstanding offensive play of the day.

The Beavers won their first game of the season by trouncing the Oil City Oilers 31-6. Four pass interceptions highlighted the defensive work of the Orange and Black. Steve Olson completed four out of eight passes and the Beavers led the Oilers by three touchdowns at halftime. Baressi scored on a 75-yard run and Ray Mitchell was outstanding on defense.

The Beavers bombed the Johnsonburg Ramblers behind the explosive shots of Joe Baressi and the running of Bob Roden. The 25-6 win was an exact reversal of last year's score.

Corry met Franklin's Knights in a "do-or-die" game at the latter's field and lost to a very good Franklin team by a score of 27-6. This victory practically clinched the Knight's second consecutive championship. They shared the 1958 title with Corry and Warren.

Twenty big points in the fourth quarter featured the Beaver's come-from-behind victory over the Bradford Owls. Bill Lord scored the Beaver's first touchdown on the first offensive play by streaking 81 yards. Baressi scored two touchdowns and Olson passed to Harold Wade for the fourth Beaver score of the evening.

Corry's victory over arch-rival Titusville was a methodical success. Scoring seven points in each quarter the Orange and Black defeated the Rockets by a score of 28-0 before the largest turnout at Howard Sheen Field. Roden and Lord accounted for all four touchdowns.

Corry's hard-hitting defense and explosive attack combined to ambush Kane and account for the latter's lone defeat of the season. It was, by far, the outstanding performance by the Beavers in their 1960 season. Steve Olson scored two touchdowns and passed for a third in a sparkling exhibition of football talent. Rugged Harold Wade and Olson lead the Beavers on defense. It was a great team effort.

The Beavers won their fourth home game in a row by defeating Erie East, 16-12. Bob Roden's vicious ground game was the determining factor in the hard-fought game. Lord tallied both touchdowns for the Beavers.

The Orange and Black wound up their 1960 season in a 26-26 tie with the Meadville Bulldogs on a rain-drenched field. Joe Baressi scored four touchdowns in the season finale.

Corry's Basketball team was much better than the wins and losses indicated. They showed great desire, determination, and improvement over the entire season. The Beavers lost a number of close games, three by one point which gave the Corry fan's many thrills. Of the starting quintet, four were seniors although a number of underclassmen saw a great deal of action due to the building program in effect.

Swimming

The Corry swimmers this year began to get their share of first and second place points rather than the usual thirds and, as a result, found out how it felt to win a meet. Veteran point makers were Michael Andersen, Ron Brown, John Kelsey, Mike Lewis, Dave McMullin, Chuck Thomas, and late-starter Perry Parker. They were aided immeasurably by freshmen Art Butters, Dennis Crowell, Rick Houghtling, Gary Lane, and Jack McIntyre.

Cheerleaders

Connie Nichols, Sylvia Mulvin, Judy Gentilman, Elaine Chillock, Wanda Reick, Theresa Roach.

The cheerleaders completed another very successful year under the direction of Mrs. Minna Stahl.

In September they held a dance to earn money for new basketball uniforms. These uniforms are black wool jumpers and white blouses with choir boy collars on them. They also wore black socks and white sneakers with these uniforms.

The only Sophomore on the squad was Elaine Chillock who substituted for Martha Phillips.

Beaverettes

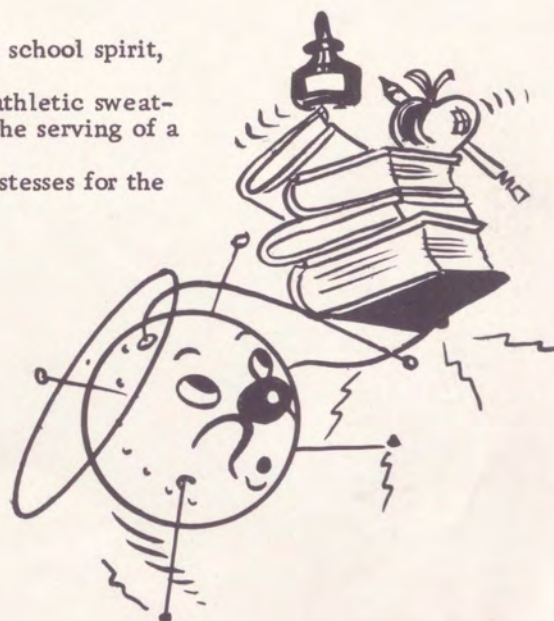

President Mary Jane O'Hare
 Vice-President Barbara Burton
 Secretary Mary Ann Diemer
 Treasurer Agnes Sutton

The general purpose of the Beaverettes is to promote school spirit, not only in athletics but in the entire school.

The Club of fifty members raised money for Senior athletic sweaters through the sponsorship of dances and, in February, the serving of a spaghetti dinner.

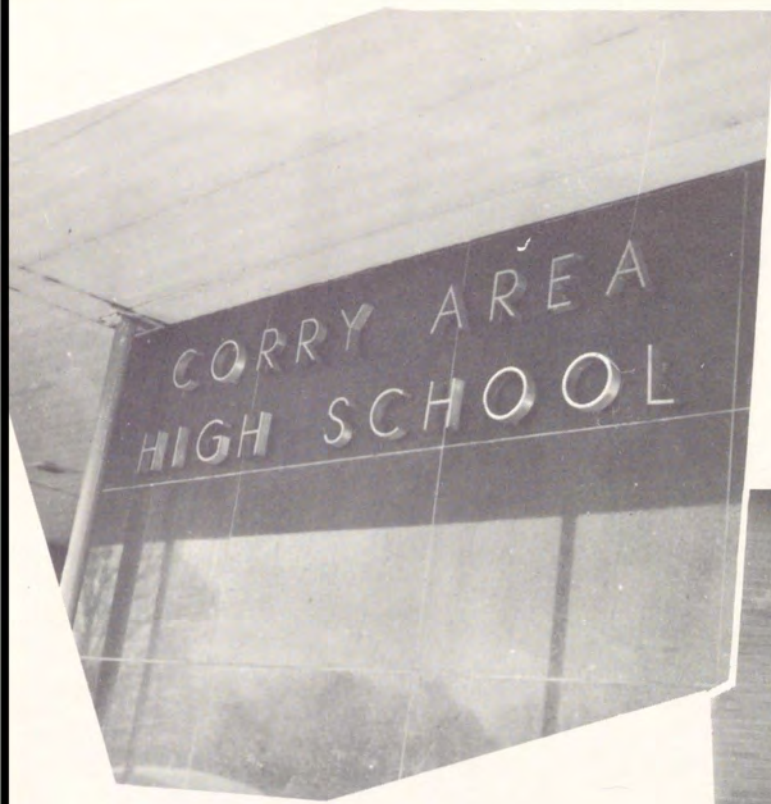

The girls ushered at all home games and acted as hostesses for the many post-game dances.

Switchboard Operators

This year the Senior girls who were in the commercial course took over the operation of the switchboard. This relieved Mrs. Root, who formerly did this, of the task.

The operators were under the supervision of Mrs. Dorthea Williams.

The girls enjoyed doing this as a part of their Office Practice and as a service to Corry Area High School.
