All faiths are welcome. Equal housing opportunity.

Welcome to Little Lake Theatre.

There's something quietly powerful about gathering in a room like this. Not just to watch a story, but to share in it. To sit beside neighbors, friends, and strangers, and experience something together that only exists for a few hours, and then lives on in memory.

Theatre asks something simple of us, and something profound. It asks us to pay attention. To listen. To imagine ourselves into someone else's life. In doing so, it reminds us that we are not alone, and that the distance between us may not be as wide as it sometimes feels.

This season, Home Is Where the Heart Is, is rooted in that idea. Home is not just a place. It is a feeling. A sense of belonging. A space where we can gather, reflect, and recognize something of ourselves in one another.

At Little Lake, we believe theatre is more than entertainment. It is part of the fabric of a community. A place where stories are not just told, but shared. Where laughter, silence, and even discomfort can exist side by side, and where something honest can emerge in the presence of others.

What you'll see on this stage tonight is the result of an extraordinary group of artists, many balancing full lives beyond these walls, who have chosen to come together to create something meaningful. Their work is built on trust, collaboration, and a belief that what happens here matters.

And it does, because you are here.

We're grateful to share this space with you.
Enjoy the show.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dearest Patron,

Thank you for answering the call.

Now, stay on the line and pay attention.. The play you are about to see has been planned, rehearsed, rethought, adjusted, and (just to be safe) rehearsed some more. Every detail has been meticulously considered and every variable has been accounted for. I am confident that our story will unfold seamlessly to your engagement and delight.

Do you trust me? I wouldn't.

Because I have just told you a lie. I've charmed you into expecting a normal night at the theater--no such thing exists.

Live theater has a way of testing our expectations and Dial M for Murder demonstrates this idea with every twist and turn. Will you identify with the victim? Will you root for the killer? We don't know. We didn't have you at rehearsal.

No matter how carefully we've planned, the plan is only complete with you in the room. There is no fixed version of tonight, only this version. A scary thought...

Don't worry though. I would never let you down.

Most sincerely,
Tal Kroser
