BRAVO! BRAVO! ENCORE!

Take a bow on a life well-lived and enjoy your encore.

An intimate, service-enriched membership community, Encore on the Lake is for active seniors who want to embark on new adventures and build lifelong friendships.

EncoreOnTheLake.org | 724-213-8280
All faiths are welcome. Equal housing opportunity.

Welcome to the Lake!

Dear friends,

A season should not be ten versions of the same evening.

It should surprise you.

That is one of the reasons The Wolves belongs at Little Lake.

Over the course of this year, you have watched this theatre become everything from Oz to Victorian London, from a family's mythology in Big Fish to the complete comic insanity of Dracula. Tonight, the spectacle falls away. We have a group of young women, a soccer field, and a remarkable piece of writing that asks us simply to listen.

There is enormous value in making room for work like this. Young people do not live outside the difficult realities of our world; they encounter grief, pressure, identity, fear, friendship, ambition, and uncertainty just as adults do - often with fewer tools for naming them. Our teenage artists deserve more than stories that ask them to be simple, safe, or small. They deserve the chance to tell stories that are deep and complicated, demanding and honest, and every bit as fierce as they are.

Part of our responsibility as a theatre is to give audiences the stories they already know they want. Another part is earning enough trust that every once in a while we can say: come with us on this one.

The Wolves is one of those invitations.

And perhaps appropriately, after one of our most intimate productions of the year, we will end 2026 with our biggest.

This December, Little Lake moves into the Canon Theatre in downtown Canonsburg for Irving Berlin's White Christmas. It is a very different kind of theatrical experience - music, dancing, scale, and an entirely new space for Little Lake - but it grows from the same idea that has carried this company for decades: bringing people together around a story.

Thank you for trusting us with your evening.

And thank you for making room for this play.

The work that stretches us is often the work that needs the most help. Ticket sales alone cannot tell us which stories deserve to be told. Donors give us the freedom to make room for plays like The Wolves, to trust artists, and to invite audiences into something they may not yet know they need. If that kind of theatre matters to you, please consider making a gift to Little Lake.

Much love and appreciation,

Patrick Cannon, Artistic Director

Katie Flanigan, Director of Production

A Note from the Director:

"Belonging & human connection are deeply nurtured in the field of shared story."

— Jean Houston

Over time, we are pushed, shaped, bruised, listened and loved into who we become. Much of this shaping happens, as Jean Houston shares, in the field of shared story. Tonight, that field is an indoor soccer field.. shared by nine complex, hilarious, and fiercely authentic adolescent girls traversing the wild and messy terrain of growth and grief.

They move continually between discovering their individual identity and finding belonging within a team. Holding this tension is no easy feat, especially during adolescence. The Wolves offers us an opportunity to examine how we each navigate our own growth and grief. The raw honesty of adolescence invites us to reflect on how we turn toward and away from the messiness and beauty of life, all while learning to trust how our unique expression contributes to the whole.

Over the past six weeks, the actors on this stage have engaged in deep excavation to uncover the truth of these characters. I have been moved to my core by their brilliance and commitment to this process. Their capacity for empathy and listening gives me hope for the future. It has been an honor. We invite you to take a deep breath and become an active participant in our field of shared story with us.

She's excited to be back at the Lake for another and hopes to be involved with more productions, both behind the scenes and maybe on the stage.

Britt Dorazio (Director) is a multidisciplinary artist, educator, and trauma-informed practitioner and is grateful to be back at the Lake!! She is the founder of Sovereign Creative Wellness, where she designs and facilitates programs that integrate mindfulness, somatic practice, and creative process. With over a decade of experience in arts education and community-based programming, Britt has led trauma-informed, arts & mind-body based initiatives in classrooms and nonprofit organizations in Pittsburgh and New York City. In addition to her educational work, Britt is a professional theater artist with 15 years of experience in Pittsburgh and New York City, as well as a published poet and recording artist. It has been a huge honor and privilege to work alongside this incredible team, cast, and crew to bring this important story to life!

Britt Pierce (Sound Board Operator) is a sound engineer and designer with 8 years of experience and the best job in the world. FB/IG/Bluesky: @PierceOfWork

Sylvia Sims-Linkish (Costumes/Props Designer) is proud to be working with Little Lake Theatre for her 9th season. Sylvia has also been a costumes and props designer in the Pittsburgh area with other community and high school productions, including Mon River Arts & Carnegie stage. Most recently she was Costume and Props Designing Cinderella at Fort Cherry High School & Pickleball at Little Lake Theatre. Educated in the theatre and graduated from AMDA in NYC, Sylvia has worked in nearly every artistic medium there is, but always finds her way back to the theatre where her artistic soul feels most at home.

Nina Stumpf (Scenic Designer) is thrilled to be working with the lake again! Their previous shows at Little Lake include Props Designer for Frozen Jr., Scenic Painter for Reefer Madness, Costume Designer for Spongebob: Youth Edition, Costume Designer for Finding Nemo Jr., Costume Designer for Murder on the Orient Express. They hold a BFA in Technical Theatre & Design from Point Park University's Conservatory of Performing Arts.

Tori Trimm (Associate Director) is thrilled to return to Little Lake Theatre Company for The Wolves, her second production at the Lake. With a background in mental health and a lifelong love of performing, she finds joy both in inhabiting stories onstage and shaping them from behind the table. She is drawn to the ways art helps us understand ourselves and care for one another, and working with this cast and team has reminded her of the healing power of theater and what it means to listen to each other's stories. Past credits include directing American Idiot and Spring Awakening at Duke University and assistant directing Pickleball at Little Lake. She thanks her friends and family for their love and support, Little Lake for creating such a precious community, and its patrons for supporting the arts and making space for these stories to be told.

Nicole White (Lighting Designer) graduated from Point Park University Conservatory of Performing Arts with a BFA in Theater Arts. Currently, she is a resident lighting designer at Alumni Theater Company as well as Little Lake. She also does freelance lighting design for companies like Resonance Works (Cinderella), Indiana University of Pennsylvania (The Thanksgiving Play and The Inseparables), and Bricolage Production Company (Duquesne Club Midnight Radio). When she's not working theater, she's a locations assistant for movies and tv shows such as How to Rob a Bank, Mayor of Kingstown, The Gymnast, Cha Cha Real Smooth, and American Rust.

Nathan Walter (Associate Artistic Director) attended Washington and Jefferson College where he received a B.A. in Philosophy, English, and Communications. Since graduating, he has worked in the Pittsburgh area as a Stage Manager and Director. Theaters he has worked for include Quantum Theatre, The Pittsburgh CLO, Lincoln Park Performing Arts Center, Pittsburgh International Classical Theatre, Throughline Theatre Company, South Park Theatre, Stage 62, Mon River Arts, Theater Factory, and Little Lake.

Katie Flanigan (Director of Production) is no stranger to the Lake. Since attending Little Lake's theatre summer camp in 2005, she was forever hooked by the world of community theatre. After becoming an apprentice in 2008, she now returns nearly two decades later in a senior leadership role. Her theatrical experience spans two decades of production and stage management, performing, and organizational leadership. Katie most recently served on the Board of Directors at Old Schoolhouse Players as the Public Relations chair, concurrently managing production logistics, box office operations, and marketing. At Little Lake, Katie oversees production operations, technical planning, and design coordination, supporting an expanding slate of productions.

Patti Knapp (Managing Director) began her tenure as Managing Director of Little Lake Theatre in October 2019. She has overall responsibility for day-to-day operations and fiscal management, including budgeting. She is leading initiatives to strengthen Little Lakes' financial base and support innovative programs to expand Little Lake audiences and is an ex-officio member of the Board of Directors. In her tenure, she has raised over $300,000 for facility improvements and introduced accessible programming to the Little Lake community. Before becoming Managing Director, she had over 40 years of development, marketing, and business management experience. Most recently, she spent three years in Washington D.C. as the Business & Development Director for Washington Revels, a multicultural non-profit arts organization. Patti worked for 15 years with Pittsburgh Musical Theater as their Marketing & Development Manager while overseeing numerous educational programs reaching over 268 students ages 4-18, as well as maintaining the company's database. She was instrumental in formulating a successful $3-million-dollar capital campaign, which resulted in Pittsburgh Musical Theater purchasing the building that has housed them for over 12 years. She has worked as a consultant to other nonprofits, assisting with grant writing, marketing, and implementing accessibility initiatives in the Pittsburgh area. She is thrilled to be a part of this wonderful community, and we hope you enjoy our 2026 season. Welcome to the Lake!

Patrick Cannon (Artistic Director/Fight Director) is in his fifth season as Artistic Director of Little Lake Theatre Company, where he has led the organization to record-breaking growth in subscriptions, attendance, and revenue while expanding its artistic programming and community reach. Cannon is a multidisciplinary artist working as a director, writer, and Actors' Equity Association actor. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre from Columbia College Chicago and a Master of Fine Arts in Screenwriting and Playwriting from Point Park University. His film projects Submit it to Festivals, Mulligan, and We Are Nowhere have been Official Selections in five Academy Award qualifying film festivals. Mulligan (available on Amazon) won Best Pilot at the Rhode Island International Film Festival and was one of three pilots selected worldwide for Film Independent's LA Film Festival. He is also the recipient of the BroadwayWorld Pittsburgh Award for Best Direction of a Musical for Amélie.
